

Heathcote Primary School Whole School Progression Map

	Early Years- Reception	KS1	LKS2	UKS2
Our big questions;	"Which people are special and why?" "What times are special and why?" "Being special: where do we belong?" "What places are special and why?" "Which stories are special and why?" "What is special about our world?"	Yr2- "What can we learn from sacred books?" Muslim/Christian Yr2- "Who are Jewish and what do they believe?" Yr2- "How should we care for others and the world and why does it matter?"	Yr3- "Who inspires us? Why is Jesus inspirational?" Yr3- "What can we learn from religions about deciding what is right and wrong?" Yr3- "Why are festivals important to religious communities?" Yr3- "What do different people believe about God?" Yr4- "Why is the Bible so important for Christians today?" Yr4- "Why do people pray?" Yr4- "Why do some people think life is a journey and what significant events mark this?" Yr4- "What does it mean to be a Hindu in Britain today?" Yr4- "What does it mean to be a Christian in Britain today?"	Yr5- Why do some people believe God exists? Yr5- What do religions say to us when life gets hard? Yr5- Is it better to express your beliefs in arts and architecture or in charity and generosity? Yr6- What would Jesus do? Can we live by the values of Jesus in the 21st Century? Yr6- If God is everywhere why go to a place of worship? Yr6- What does it mean to be a Muslim in Britain today? Yr6- What matters most to Christians and Humanists?
Beliefs and teachings (from various religions)	Children begin to show an awareness that some people belong to different religions. Children can begin to talk about the beliefs of a particular religion, recognise that some people believe God created the world and talk about the fact that Christians believe in God and follow the example of Jesus. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> explain that some people believe different things, based on their religion. begin to describe the main beliefs of a religion. begin to describe the main festivals of a religion. 	Children begin to recall and name different beliefs and main festivals associated with religions. Children can recognise different religious symbols, their relevance for individuals and how they feature in festivals. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> describe the main beliefs of a religion; describe the main festivals of a religion. 	Children can describe the key beliefs and teachings of the religions studied, making some comparisons between religions. Children expand on their knowledge of world religions from KS1. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> describe the key teachings and beliefs of a religion; begin to compare the main festivals of world religions; refer to religious figures and holy books. 	Children can explain how beliefs and teachings can make contributions to the lives of individuals and communities. Children can compare the key beliefs and teachings of various religions, using appropriate language and vocabulary and demonstrating respect and tolerance. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> recognise and explain how some teachings and beliefs are shared between religions; explain how religious beliefs can shape the lives of individuals and contribute to society.
Rituals, ceremonies and lifestyles (from various religions)	Children begin to recognise special places where people go to worship and talk about what people do there. They can identify 3 features of a place of worship. Children are able to identify a special time they celebrate and explain what celebration means. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> recognise a typical Church and Gurdwara identify 3 things which would be found in a Church or Gurdwara. explain that Christmas is a time celebrated by Christians and why the celebration is special to them. 	Children begin to explore daily practices and rituals of religions, identifying religious practices and recognising that some are featured in more than one religion. Children begin to reflect on their own experiences of attending ceremonies. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> recognise, name and describe religious artefacts, places and practices; explain religious rituals and ceremonies and the meaning of them, including their own experiences of them; observe when practices and rituals are featured in more than one religion or lifestyle. 	Moving on from KS1, children look at the concepts of belonging, identity and meaning. Children understand what belonging to a religion might look like, through practices and rituals, and what it might involve. Children begin to discuss and present thoughtfully their own and others' views. Children also explore pilgrimages as a part of a religious life. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> identify religious artefacts and how they are involved in daily practices and rituals; describe religious buildings and how they are used; explain religious ceremonies and rituals and their importance for people's lives and sense of belonging. 	Children look further at the concepts of belonging, identity and meaning. They understand how certain features of religion make a difference to individuals and communities. Children also explore the rituals and ceremonies which mark important points in life. Moving on from LKS2, children will have the opportunity to explore non-religious ways of life. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> explain practices and lifestyles associated with belonging to a faith; explain practices and lifestyles associated with belonging to a non-religious community; compare lifestyles of different faiths and give reasons why some people within the same faith choose to adopt different lifestyles; show an understanding of the role of a spiritual leader.

Heathcote Primary School Whole School Progression Map

How beliefs are expressed	Children begin to explore stories from the Christian bible and other faiths. They can talk about the stories and begin to look for similarities and differences. Children begin to compare creation stories from around the world. Children are able to ask simple questions about stories to do with Christmas and Hanukah. They also attempt to retell a story that shows what Christians might think about God. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> retell simple stories from the Christian bible ask questions about Christmas and Hanukah explain in simple terms what Christians think about God. 	Children explore a range of sources of wisdom and the traditions from which they come. They can suggest some meanings to religious stories. Children begin to recognise different symbols and how they express a community's way of life. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> name religious symbols and the meaning of them; learn the name of important religious stories; retell religious stories and suggest meanings in the story. 	Children explore the expression of beliefs through books, scriptures, art and other important means of communication. Children then move on to exploring a range of beliefs, symbols and actions to express meaning. Children can explain the meaning of religious stories and sources of wisdom and the traditions from which they come. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> begin to identify religious symbolism in different forms of art and communication; looking at holy texts and stories, explain meaning in a story; express their beliefs in different forms, with respect for others' beliefs and comparing beliefs. 	Children continue to explore the expression of beliefs through books, scriptures, art and any other important means of communication, as in LKS2. Children then move on to exploring a range of beliefs, symbols and actions so they can understand different ways of life and expressing meaning. Children can explain meaning of religious stories, sources of wisdom and the traditions from which they come. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> explore religious symbolism in literature and the arts; explain some of the different ways individuals show their beliefs; share their opinion or express their own belief with respect and tolerance for others.
Time to reflect and personal growth	Children begin to reflect on questions such as, 'Am I a good friend?' and 'What could I do to help other people?' This will then link into bible stories and look at how religious figures were kind to people and helped their friends. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> identify why they are a good friend name 3 things that they could do to help people they know. reflect on religious figures in bible stories and say if they were kind to their friends or not. 	Children look at how an appreciation of religion plays an important role in the lives of some people. They make links to expressing identity and belonging and what is important to them. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> identify things that are important in their lives; ask questions about the puzzling aspects of life; understand that there are similarities and differences between people. 	Children further explore how an appreciation of religion plays an important role in the lives of some people. They make links to expressing identity and belonging, including links to communities they may belong to. They notice and respond sensitively to different views. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> understand that personal experiences and feelings can influence their attitudes and actions; offer suggestions about why religious and non-religious leaders and followers have acted the way they have; ask questions that have no agreed answers, and offer suggestions as answers to those questions; understand that there are similarities and differences between people and respect those differences. 	Children continue to develop their understanding how an appreciation of religion plays an important role in the lives of some people. They make links to expressing identity and belonging, and notice and respond sensitively to different views. Children can then discuss and apply their own and others' ideas about ethical questions, including ideas about what is right and wrong and what is just and fair. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> recognise and express feelings about their identities and beliefs; explain their own opinions about tricky concepts and tricky questions that have no universally agreed answers; explain why their answers may be different from someone else's and respond sensitively.
Values (in your own life and others lives)	Children begin to discuss people who are special to them and what makes them special people to them. They talk about issues of good and bad, right and wrong arising from religious stories. Children begin to make simple connections between their own lives and others that we discuss from religion. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> identify people that are special to them and explain why they are special. Begin to understand how their own actions can affect other people. Begin to realise that they have a choice over how they act towards other people. 	Children look at and appreciate how many people's values are an important aspect of their lives. Children look at religious stories to understand actions and consequences. Children begin to make connections to their own lives, looking at their own actions and consequences and choices they can make. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> look at how values affect a community and individuals; explain how actions can affect other people; understand that they have their own choices to make and begin to understand the concept of morals. 	Children develop their appreciation of the ways in which people's values are an important aspect of their lives. They make links to responsibility and citizenship and choices they make affecting their lives. Children begin to understand the concept of shared values and how a community can use shared values. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> make informed choices and understand the consequences of choices; describe how shared values in a community can affect behaviour and outcomes; discuss and give opinions on morals and values, including their own. 	Children continue to develop their appreciation of the ways in which people's values are an important aspect of their lives. They make links to responsibility and citizenship. Children begin to understand the concept of shared values and how a community can use shared values. Moving on from their previous learning, children begin to strengthen their capacity for moral judgements. Children can: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> explain why individuals and communities may have similar and differing values; show an awareness of morals, question morals and demonstrate an ability to make choices, understanding the consequences; express their own values while respecting the values of others.